SIGN UP TO ACCESS ONLINE TRAINING

Introducing The Building Products University Education Platform

This online education portal, bpuonline.com, gives you access to product training, installation tips, helpful dos and dont's, and roofing 101 content across the Holcim Building Envelope family of brands in an easy, accesible, user-friendly format.

Everything You Need in One Place

Online training for Holcim Building Envelope and its family of brands, Elevate, GenFlex and Gaco, are accessible on one training website. Check back often for new curriculum paths that qualify for architect continuing education credits and new contractor onboarding programs for those rainy days. It's all in one place, organized and easy to use.

WHAT YOU GET:

- Centralized access to all Holcim Building Envelope online training

- Accessible across all devices including laptop, tablet and phone

- Simple process for accessing information

What's in It for You

The Building Products University Education platform is an easy way to increase product and roofing knowledge, plus help improve your installation techniques. It's one more way Holcim Building Envelope and its brands work hard to provide the tools and resources to help your business succeed.
